

Flavors of the Season

Prepare for some smooth summer sippin'.

Twilight Ale As the summer days stretch into night, Twilight Ale arrives to celebrate the long lazy hours. It's a lighter, yet full-flavored ale with an attractive aroma. A complementary malt presence imparts just enough tension to its refreshingly crisp, dry profile. Signature Amarillos make Twilight something best enjoyed chilled and savored outdoors. Available across the western U.S. in six-packs, twelve-packs, and on draft now until September.

ABV 5% IBU's 35 SEASONAL

Hop in the Dark (Cascadian Dark Ale)

This commanding brew combines prominent Northwest hops with roasted malts to create a mysterious flavor sensation. Hop in the Dark aromas come from Cascade, Amarillo, Citra, and Centennial hops that glide over a gentle undercurrent of velvety malt complexities. "This beer has subtle coffee undertones, born from a blend of oats with dark, Munich, and crystal malts. Classic IPA flavors and aromas are due to courageous additions of various hops," said Brewmaster Larry Sidor.

Deschutes Brewery invites beer lovers everywhere to take the plunge – a hop, if you will – into this new Cascadian Dark Ale. Available across the western U.S. in 22 oz bottles and on draft now until September. ABV 6.5% IBU's 75 BOND STREET SERIES

Black Butte XXII First brewed to celebrate our 20th Anniversary in 2008, our double Black Butte Porter returns to astound and inspire in 2010. Generation XXII combines cocoa nibs, dark chocolate, orange peel, and chilies into Bourbon barrels to create a masterpiece of creative brewer whimsy. This beer will be the perfect companion to our celebrations at the Bend and Portland Pubs for our 22nd birthday. Also available in limited quantities in 22 oz bottles and on draft late-June all over the west. ABV 11% IBU's 55 RESERVE SERIES

The Fantastic Fanatics

Undying devotion from fans far from Bend.

Dear Deschutes,

So...I just wanted to share something I think is flip'n cool. I was driving north on the 110 freeway heading into downtown LA when a Deschutes Brewery truck pulls up next to me (I'm sitting in gridlock). Why is this cool you might ask? #1...I love your beer and #2...I live in LA and #3...cool looking truck giving great exposure to an awesome brand. Forgive my nostalgic nod off, but while I'm not from Bend, Oregon, I sure wish I was. And seeing the beer truck crawl by me, I swear for a moment a whiff of hops refreshed the otherwise constant inhalation of smog. Thanks for delivering the goods!

Justin Goodkind

Dear Deschutes,

Black Butte Porter has long been the one beer that accentuates all my major life events. Since moving to Minnesota ten years ago, I've squirreled away six packs in my luggage or trunk every time I visit friends in Oregon. I dole them out sparingly throughout the year, unless I have guests who've never tasted Black Butte – then it's a brag fest and open bottles galore. Today I got great news when I headed out for happy hour...to find BLACK BUTTE on TAP!! Holy %@&*! Thank you!!! It's about dang time, and keep on brewing!

Love from a very happy Minnesota transplant! Denise Noble

Mike's Angle

It Plays Hell with the Tomatoes

It's summertime in Central Oregon – depending on what day you're reading this. Unlike the lush valley on the other side of the Cascade Range, we don't experience the slow and gentle transition from winter to spring to summer. Mother Nature wired in an on/off switch somewhere near Bend that she likes to flick up and down in the early part of June. Robins sit confused in bare branches and tulips push mindlessly up through the snow. We scrape our windshields in the morning and wear shorts in the afternoon. The switch stays on while she heads over to the coast to mess around with the clouds and waves for a couple of months, while the occasional "power outage" plays hell with the tomatoes. In August she comes back and flicks the switch a bit more until she leaves for Hawaii, which can be anywhere from Labor Day to Halloween.

Bend has an exchange program with Hawaii. They come here in the summer and we go there in the winter. There is a perfect balance of movement – it's like a large scale commute that takes place over the course of a year. I think the attraction has to do with the volcanoes and SPAM (the canned food, not the junk in your inbox). The only real difference is that we have Kennebec fries and they have Poi. The greatest thing is you can get a refreshing Twilight Ale in both places in the summer. Just don't leave your six-pack by the tomatoes at night.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Mike has never actually been to Hawaii. If you'd like to encourage more accurate reporting by The Bitter Truth, please send cash to "Mike Goes to Hawaii" care of Deschutes Brewery.
